

Of People

STATINTL

Officers of New WTA Unit

Edward S. Conrad has been elected president and chief executive officer of Applied Systems Technology, Inc., a new subsidiary of Washington Technological Associates, Rockville electronics firm. Julian Caballero Jr., has been named vice president-engineering. The new company is located at 302 West Maple Ave., Vienna. Conrad formerly was with the Central Intelligence Agency in an engineering capacity and with Melpar, Inc. Caballero also was with CIA and Melpar.

Conrad